

Study Abroad May 2018

Wildlife Conservation in Tanzania

Informational Meetings:

Mon Oct 9 at 5pm 333 Science II

Thurs Oct 12 at 11am 333 Science II

Program Objectives:

- Contrast competing uses of natural resources
- Learn how ecosystems are managed in an effort to mitigate human-wildlife conflict
- Experience the incredible biodiversity of Tanzania with a particular emphasis on birds and mammals

Travel Dates May 8-22, Pre-departure course Spring semester

Estimated Cost $5,600

Apply by Nov 1

Program Leaders:

Dr. Julie Blanchong (julieb@iastate.edu)

Dr. Stephen Dinsmore (cootjr@iastate.edu)

